

Benchmark: 2a

Selected response prompt:

Why do banks charge more interest from people who take out loans than they give to people who deposit money in their savings accounts?

- A. Collect money from the government.
- B. Attract more customers.
- C. Increases deposits.
- D. Make a profit

Correct response: D