

Benchmark: History 1

Pre-Revolutionary Events

1763 The Proclamation of 1763
1765 Quartering Act
1765 Stamp Act
1765 “Sons of Liberty” started meeting
1770 Boston Massacre
1774 Intolerable Acts
1774 First Continental Congress met
1776 “Common Sense” published

Multiple Choice Prompt:

Cause and effect is an idea that is often discussed when we look at historical events. Look at the events listed above carefully. Which one of the following choices was not an effect of these events:

- a. The English try to control the lives of the colonists.
- b. The colonists begin to protest against the English laws.
- c. The English decide to leave the colonists alone.
- d. The colonists begin to unite against the English king.

Desired Response(s): C